TO HELL AND BACK IN THE BIBLE WAY

Verily Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction.

The Hell of the Bible Not the Hell of Theology-The Bible Hell to Be Destroyed-Jesus Went to the Bible Hell and Returned-Everybody, Good and Bad, Bound For the Bible Hell, Christ's Mission Was to Rescue All From the Bible Hell, Sheel, Hades. The Object of Their Release.

Baltimore, Md. Jan. 24. - Pastor Russell preached here today at the Academy of Music. His text was, "Thou wilt not leave My soul in Hell." - Psaim 16:10; Acts 2:27. The Pastor declared that the Bible Hell is very reasonable, but that the theologi cal Hell is most unreasonable, as all will agree. The theological Hell is a red-hot furnace, manned with fireproof devils and containing practically all humanity, except the few saintly followers of Jesus. He remarked upon the different kinds of Hell. It seemed to him that each preacher felt that he had a right to make a Hell for all non-church members according to his own conception. None seemed to think it necessary to go to the Bible.

Fire Used as Symbol of Destruction. The speaker reminded his audience of the views of the saintly Thomas a Kempis, in which he described the horrible smells and sights of Hell so graphically as to make one wonder if he had made a special visit and returned to write a description. The tortures of Hell, the saint informed us, will be kept up throughout eternity for the joy of God and the boly angels, for the satisfaction of some kind of justice which the saint had in mind, but which we of today are unable to comprehend.

Fire is used in Scripture as a symbo of destruction, the Pastor explained an illustration of the final destruction of all the wilfully wicked. People know something about flery trials and about heaping flery coals upon their enemies' heads, figuratively. But whenever the word fire can be twisted into signifying eternal torment, those who love that kind of punishment for their enemies are swift to take advantage of it-eternal torture is the just, the loving thing for the beathen, for the poor, ignorant and degraded, who, born in sin, in weakness, find themselves discouraged and overwhelmed by the Adversary, and for all not church members.

This sort of thing has gone so long lieve it, and remarkably few have inquired into its unscripturalness. Many sensible people held aloof from religion entirely, unwilling to confess themselves believers of such a doctrine or worshipers of such a God.

He then showed that ministers, with out giving their authority, now tell various tales about Hell, modified to suit our more refined feelings. Some have it with a slower fire, not so red-hot others have it merely a place of mental remorse. In this they follow to some extent Dante's pictures of Purgatory, although not calling it by that name or admitting that there will ever be release from it. They declare that there is nothing in the Bible about Purgatory, and forget that there is nothing there about their kind of Hell. the Bible Hell being totally different.

The Rich Man In Hell, Etc. The Pastor then referred to the parable of The Rich Man and Lazarus as one seized upon to prove that Hell is a place of torture, etc. He could not digress to discuss this parable or the two figurative statements in Revelation used to bolster the doctrine of eternal torture. But he offered free of charge a booklet making these figurative statements clear. Whoever will address him-Paster Russell, Brooklyn. N. Y .- requesting a copy of a pamphlet about Hell, will be promptly served free. Many, after reading it, are enabled to love, worship and serve God heartfly, intelligently, as never before, Where Is Hell? Who Are There?

Our English word Hell, the Pastor explained, comes from the German word hochle, a hole. It is therefore a very good translation of the Hebrew word Sheol, which signifies pit, hole, grave. The New Testament Greek gives Hades as an exact equivalent of Sheol. The Psalmist's statement, Thou wilt not leave My soul in Eases Quickly When You Ap- Sheel." St. Peter translated as "Thou wilt not leave My soul in Hades." St. Peter tells us that these words were not true respecting the Prophet David, who used them; that he is still in Hell, Sheel. Hades. The words were a prophecy relating to Christ's resurrection -God raised Jesus from the dead on the third day-raised Him, therefore, from Hades, after He had been in Hades for parts of three days.

The Bible explicitly declares that all die really, not seemingly; and that there would be no future life whatever for mankind, unless God provides a resurrection. God has thus provided in Christ, who died for our sins. Therefore, ultimately, all will be delivered from Sheol, Hades, the grave. Our Lord says that He will unlock the tomb, and deliver the prisoners. He "has the keys of death and of Hades."
